ABOUT THE GLOBAL CAMPUS OF HUMAN RIGHTS

The Global Campus of Human Rights (GC) is a network of over 100 partner universities which cooperate through eight regional hubs based in Venice (GC Europe), Sarajevo/Bologna (GC South East Europe), Pretoria (GC Africa), Bangkok (GC Asia-Pacific), Yerevan (GC Caucasus), Buenos Aires (GC Latin America and the Caribbean), Beirut (GC Arab World) and Bishkek (GC Central Asia).

The GC partners have trained and empowered generations of human rights and democracy advocates and defenders, governmental and non-governmental officers, academics and civil servants across the world. A worldwide network of more than 6,000 graduates from postgraduate courses, professional trainings and massive online courses has come to build on a priceless legacy of front-line commitment, advanced academic and practical skills and passionate service to humanity.

The Global Campus experience is distinguished by its interdisciplinary insights, cross-cultural exchanges, wide range of participants and partners, international mobility, local and global networking opportunities, and the unwavering determination to shape a world culture of human rights. The wealth of human resources connected by global and regional alliances fostered by the GC and its Regional Programmes offer remarkable tools and opportunities to promote human rights and democracy worldwide.

The Global Campus of Human Rights is possible thanks to the financial support of the European Union, Right Livelihood, and other donors. Its headquarters is located in Venice, Italy.
